XTC II SERIES

Make Water From The Sea Effortlessly.

Turn seawater into reliable, general-use fresh water with the push of a button. The SpotZero XTCII handles every part of the process automatically — no setup, no supervision. Designed for total confidence offshore, it's equipped with two layers of redundancy – electronic and manual – to keep running even in the toughest marine conditions. Compact, powerful, and built for serious time at sea, the XTCII is the easiest and reliable water maker in its class.
